Attention Drama Club: Please remember that your Antonian Surveys are due today to Ms. Hoover in Room 157 by the end of the day. If you want to be involved in upcoming activities, please make it a point to turn the survey in promptly.

September 11, 2011 marks the 10th Anniversary of the terrorist attacks on the United States that took the lives of nearly 3,000 people. AWHs has chosen to commemorate the day by presenting a video in study hall on Monday. Teachers are invited, if they choose, to turn on their classroom televisions to view the video on Channel 1. The school community is invited to remember not only the evil deeds of 9/11, but also the heroic acts and the capacity of humanity to do good in the wake of tragedy. Additionally, please consider how the nation and world have changed in the last ten years.

Parents' informational meeting on September 13th at 7:00pm at Freedom Point Church for those interested in Lacrosse Club. Parent of current and in-coming (boys and girls) players are encouraged to attend.

Attention Seniors: The Senior Homecoming Spirit shirts will go on sale Sept 6th for $10. Forms will be available from your English teachers, in the office, and in the cafeteria when you place your order. Get your order in early to avoid the lines. Your last name will appear on the back of the shirt. This is for seniors only.

The Anthony Wayne Art Department has 20 works of art on display at the 2011 Northwest Ohio High School Art Exhibition called The FOCUS SHOW. The two current art students representing Anthony Wayne in this fall exhibition are: Steven Gill – Sculpture and Aurelie Denis – Drawing. Congratulations to AW grad Marie Hoffman for winning the Superintendent's Award, and Brooke Storer and Ashley Woods for receiving the Principal's Award! The student's art work will be on display at the BGSU School of Art's gallery. A reception will be held in their honor on Sunday, September 18th.

Those students taking the ACT this coming Saturday here at Anthony Wayne – some things you need to remember. Please enter through the Auditorium Lobby. You must have photo identification with you. Make sure you get a good nights rest and bring number 2 pencils and a calculator. Any questions see your guidance counselor.

There are only 7 days left to be part of team "AW for the Cure". You can run a competitive 5k or simply walk it with a bunch of your friends or participate in the family 1k walk. If you are unable to go to the race that morning, you can still be part of our team by registering to Sleep in for the Cure. For more information check out the Race for the Cure bulletin board.

Attention Students: There will be a Tailgate before tonight's Football game against Otsego. The tailgate will begin 5:45pm at the back of the Tennis Court parking lot. The tailgate will have food and games to play. On your way to the tailgate, stop by the stadium parking lot at 5:20pm to show your school spirit and support the band and the football team as the Generals make their inaugural pregame walk from the auditorium to the stadium. See you at the game!

Attention Seniors: Senior Lock-in is Friday September 16th from 11:30pm – 5:30pm. We look forward to seeing you there for food, dodge ball, corn hole, camaraderie, and more! You must have your permission slip turned in to attend and you must check in by midnight. Permission slips are due by Friday, September 9th. Extra permission slips are available in the guidance office.

Anyone interested in playing Baseball, who is not currently playing a Fall sport, there is a meeting today in the Junior High Gym at 2:45pm.

Guten Tag! There will be a German Club meeting on Monday, September 12 in room 207 after school.

Did you know the annual Roche de Boeuf festival is coming up on September 24th in Waterville? If you like history, there is an area you will like called "The Lost Arts." It is a little distance away from the main festival area but there will be see signs showing you how to get there. You will meet many artisans and craftspeople from the early pioneer days of Waterville's history. They will share their experiences and let you try out such arts as quilting, tin smithing, corn shelling, butter churning, wood carving, and much more. There will be a Minstrel who will sing in the "Lost Arts" area and tell stories from the old days. There will be Indian tents set up and you may meet Red Bear and his Indian trading crew! You might also find an old field hospital with a surgeon from 1812 who will show you how soldiers were treated when they were wounded (or died) in battle. Some of you will be painting younger kids' faces with native American Indians' face patterns! You will learn about our community's historic past and enjoy the sights, sounds and smells of the way life was lived in the early 1800s.

If you go to the high school's website, you will find information for you, your parents and friends. If you like history, you'll love the "Lost Arts!" Many of your friends here at school will be on hand to be sure you enjoy the day as history comes alive for you. See you at Roche de Boeuf!
